Idea Exchange is your class trip destination! Experience a half-day workshop designed to enhance your curriculum teaching objectives. CELEBRATE CANADA 150 explores Canadian cultural and holiday celebrations in this special 150th anniversary year!

Active Learning:

- Discover our collection of books and materials with a walk-around tour designed to engage your students.
- Explore a wide variety of traditions in Canada while students participate in activities highlighting cultural celebrations.
- Imagine travelling the world playing a globe-trotting group activity that teaches basic map skills.
- Provide an opportunity for students to receive membership cards and make book selections.

Gallery Studio – Painted Quilt:

- Share family traditions with classmates, gaining an understanding how each unique family experience is taught from parent to child.
- Communicate with art the similarities and differences among family traditions and celebrations.
- Design and paint a symbol of celebration on a fabric square guided by a professional art instructor.
- Create create a quilt piece to be added to the IdeaExchange Celebrate Canada 150 quilt.
