

IDEA | EXCHANGE[®]

LEARN | CREATE

Idea Exchange is your class trip destination! Experience a half-day workshop designed to enhance your curriculum teaching objectives. EARLY SOCIETIES students discover a variety of early societies through a tour of Idea Exchange resources, and the creation of a clay pinch pot.

Active Learning:

- Explore activities that build research skills using online resources and the online catalogue.
- Imagine “Map Masters” where students locate Ancient Egypt, Ancient India, Early First Nations and other early societies on a map and identify landmarks and artifacts for each of these societies.
- Discover our collection of books and materials for study and leisure with a tour highlighting the non-fiction collection.
- Provide an opportunity for students to receive membership cards and make book selections

Gallery Studio – Clay Pinch Pot:

- Discuss and identify techniques used in producing clay forms.
- Learn about the first use of functional pottery vessels for storing water and food.
- Create a simple pot using the techniques outlined.

Confirming your workshop date is easy! Flexible dates & times, Email invoicing, Convenient locations. Contact us today!
