LEARN | CREATE

Idea Exchange is your class trip destination! Experience a half-day workshop designed to enhance your curriculum teaching objectives. EAGLE EYE Students research Canadian First Nations people and create artwork based on the work of Norval Morrisseau.

Active Learning:

- Research facts associated with First Nations culture, shelter and clothing by using print and online resources.
- Appreciate the relationship between First Nations people and their environment found in the illustrated story Dragonfly Kites by Canadian author Tomson Highway.
- Discover our collection of books and materials for study and leisure with a tour designed to engage your students.
- Provide an opportunity for students to receive membership cards and make book selections.

Gallery Studio – Draw and Paint:

- Discuss design principles of colour, line and form with a professional art instructor.
- Study the artwork of Canadian First Nations' artist Norval Morrisseau and the work of the Woodland School artists.
- Design a preliminary drawing reflecting the style of Norval Morrisseau.
- Create a painting in bold colour and dark outline that reflects story and emotion associated with First Nations art.
